Pretty Nashville Wedding.

The following from Tuesday's Nashville Banner will be of interest in Paducah where both the bride and groom have many friends. Mr. Aiken was for a year or more night baggage agent at the local I. C. station; and the bride has often visited her sister, Mrs. C. G. Shepherd, when Mr. Shepherd was located in Paducah as day ticket agent for the I. C. road.

"Miss Katharine Lawrence and Mr. John A. Aiken, Jr., were married last evening at the home of the bride, 1207 Fatherland street. The house was beautifully decorated in palms and ferns and was filled with friends and relatives of the contracting parties. The bride wore white crepe de chine and carried white roses. The ceremony was performed by Dr. Snow and the wedding music was rendered by Mrs. C. G. Shepherd.

"Guests from a distance were: Judge and Mrs. J. A. Aiken, of Princeton, Ky., Miss Mary Etta Ruff, of Clifton, Mr. and Mrs. C. G. Shepherd, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Rutland and Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Lawrence, of Indianapolis, Ind.

"After an informal reception the young couple were driven to 605 Cedar street, where they are at home for the present. Mrs. Aiken is a charming young woman who has been very popular in East Nashville, and Mr. Aiken is a valued employee of Swift & Co."

Miss Mabel Mitchell and Miss Emma Morgan, teachers in the city schools, are still out on account of illness.

Children's Bazaar for Monument Fund.

The Alexander Faris Chapter, Children of the Confederacy, will give an Easter Bazaar on Friday and Saturday of the week at the store of the Paducah Music company on Broadway. It will be for the benefit of the local Confederate Monument Fund, and the little folk have been working very hard, making a number of pretty, dainty and useful articles and hope to realize a goodly sum for the cause in which the local chapters and camp, as well as the town, are much interested.

The monument will be an ornament to the city and will be placed in Lang Park.

Matinee Musical Club.

The Matinee Musical club met this afternoon at the Eagle club house on Broadway. An attractive program of "Living Composers" was rendered by some of the club talent. Miss Anne Bradshaw and Miss Lula Reed were the leaders.

German Monday Night.
